

Friday 4th January 2019

Dear Parent/Guardian,

As part of the Year 3 Literacy curriculum, the class will be undertaking work on the Roald Dahl book "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory". In order to enrich the children's knowledge and understanding in this area, we are planning a trip to Cadbury World on Wednesday 20th March 2019.

In order for the trip to be financially viable we need to ask parents to make a voluntary contribution to cover the costs per child. The Friends of Hartwell Primary School have very kindly donated an amount of money to each class towards the cost of trips, however the total donation for this year has been used to fund the Viking Day.

The anticipated cost of the trip is £23.40. Please complete and return the attached slip by Friday 11th January 2019 in order for us to judge whether we can proceed with our plans.

The contribution is voluntary but should not enough parents be willing to pay the contribution unfortunately the visit will not be able to go ahead. Parents encountering difficulty with making a contribution should speak to me.

Please do not send payment at this stage.

Yours sincerely,

Miss C. James
