

Register of Persons with Significant Control

Hartwell Primary School has considered whether there are any individuals or legal entities that have significant control.

There are currently three Members with equal voting rights:

- Martin Cox (Chair of Trustees)
- Richard Alcock
- Diocesan Board of Education

Each member currently holds more than 25% of the member voting rights and as such falls under the definition of persons with significant control over the school.