Behaviour Concerns in the Home

At Home

When a parent raises a concern about a child's behaviour at home, we can offer advice on support strategies.
Here are some suggested support strategies that we can help you with:

School

- Home book
- Behaviour Diary
- Sticker chart
- Praise and positivity
- Visual timetables
- Now and next chart
- Signposting to the local offer and parenting workshops.

- Parents can contact the SEND Support Service (SSS) for further support, 0300 126 7000. You may be linked with a Family Support Worker who can come into your home and observe and offer appropriate support strategies.
- Make contact with their doctor.
- The YoungMinds Website is often a useful source of information. <https://www.youngminds.org.uk/parent/a-z-guide/challenging-behaviour/>
- Parents can make a referral to CAHMS via contact point. 01604 658800
