

Science Subject Leader

In the Early Years Foundation Stage all areas of learning are interconnected and therefore 'Science' will be seen in different ways. An EYFS environment could be described as 'science rich', as it gives children many opportunities to explore the foundational knowledge and skills that will support them when they start to learn science in KS1.

This list is not exhaustive but does provide an overview of what typically might be seen in action when visiting our Early Years classroom.

